FREE CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

A cordial invitation is extended to all women, and to girls over 12 years of age, to visit the Woman's Institute Free Circulating Library. The new room, with its attractive surroundings, affords a delightful atmosphere in which to spend a profitable hour.

There are two reading circles, under the leadership of the Librarian. The one for adults, devoted to the reading of Shakespeare's plays, meets every Monday evening from 8 to 9. The other circle, for juvenile readers, 12 years and older, meets every Monday evening from 7 to 8, and takes up the reading of some pleasant story book.

The membership of these circles is unlimited. All are invited to join.

Among the new books just added to the library are the following:

Bacon.—In the Land of the Gods.
Barr.—Cecilia's Lovers.
Chisholm.—Old Testament Stories.
